As the world shut down in 2020, the Get Mic'd team – Elley Ray and Deb Munro, assembled an incredible cast of sponsors, judges, audience and talent to celebrate the voice talent and share what we do with the world. The original Virtual VO Survivor competition in 2020 was a massive success and now we are doing it all over again for "UVOS Take 2" and are hoping for your support to help bring this not-for-profit event to life and help us celebrate our Storytellers.

Voice Soldiers will battle it out weekly to survive, gaining the ultimate grand prize and igniting the audience! Toon in as our world class judges expose talent beyond their human limits. Stepping up to the mic, battling to win and staying in the game all from the comfort of home.

Talent will fight an array of pressures and fears, facing their audience, undermining the integrity of their performance and how they perceive the audience judges them. Mental, physical, spiritual, intellectual, emotional and communal masks that get in their way, not allowing them to let go.

They will sweat, howl, bleed, spew, fart, choke, bark, yodel, holler, cluck, fight, seduce, frighten, drool, stimulate, make you laugh, cry and beg for more. The hilarity of expression is endless. The audience votes amidst the thrills, spills, and spine tingling chills. Opportunity abound for the entire creative team. The adventure of life!

An out of this world, nail biting extravaganza! Top-notch contestants campaigning to win. Introducing our audience to a world they may have never experienced. Think American Idol meets RuPaul Drag Race!

A Virtual Series that will live long and prosper, healing the world one talent at a time.

Look at our 2020 stat results:
