

The Ultimate VO Survivor Weekend Promo Script

Curious and optimistic without sounding too young or childish.

Our voice should be a real human who is passionately curious about food. She's someone who can wax poetic about quinoa or rant over the absurdity of artificial flavoring. And while she takes food seriously, she never takes herself too seriously. A relatable voice that will inject personality, humanity and even a little levity. Delivery should be loose, conversational and off-the-cuff. Nothing slick, polished or announcery. Open to unique vocal qualities. Comedy and improv background a plus! Celebrity prototypes: Emma Stone, Anna Kendrick, Sophia Bush, and Jennifer Lawrence.
